Part of a work:

CHAPTER OF EDITED WORK

NECESSARY INFORMATION (chapter of edited work and conference paper)

Author(s) of chapter
For chapters of edited books put each author's last name, then a comma, then the first name, then any additional initials. Separate the last author from the second-to-last author with a comma.

Year of publication
For books, include only the year of copyright, in parenthesis, then end with a period. If no date of publication is listed, put "n.d." in the parenthesis.

Title of chapter
Give the full title of the chapter, including the subtitle if one is given. Capitalize only the first word of the title, and the first word of any subtitle. Separate title and subtitle with a colon. For works in other languages than English, give a translation of the title in parenthesis. You may need to translate the title if it is not in English.

Editor(s) of book
Editors' names are not inverted; list the initial of each first name, then any additional initials, then each editor's last name. In the case of multiple editors, separate the last author from the second-to-last author with a comma and ampersand (&). Separate any additional editors by commas. Put "In" before the first editor and a comma after the last.

Title of Edited book
Give the full title of the book, the edited book title goes right after the comma that follows the editor(s). Write the title in italics

Pages of chapter
Page numbers and edition/revision information (if any) are placed within parentheses, directly after the edited book's title

Place of publication

Publishing entity

EXAMPLE:

Full bibliographic reference:

Parenthesis in text:
(Graedel, 1994, 25-26)
CONFERENCE PAPER

A conference paper should be treated like a chapter in a book, but add important information about the conference unless the title includes such information: Number, year, date and place. Include page numbers if there are any.

EXAMPLE:

Full bibliographic reference:

Parenthesis in text:
(Gurajena, 1995, 25-26)